CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

The Houses of Parliament are a most imposing pile of buildings viewed from the river frontage. On their site once stood the ancient Royal Palace of Edward the Confessor, which, however, was considerably altered and rebuilt, notably by William Rufus, who founded Westminster Hall, and Kings Stephen and Henry VIII. Part of these buildings were destroyed during the Great Fire, and the "New Palace of Westminster" was erected by Barry at a cost of £3,000,000.
